Del Valle's Football Homecoming— Big, Grand, Gala

ABOVE: Nanci Bouterious and Greg Arz accept homage from the large turnout at the event. RIGHT: Bill Horton and fellow players react to action on the field.

THE BIG GAME with Las Lomas was a big win for the Varsity Football Team. It added the perfect touch to the evening's entertainment. Some tense moments were felt as the 16-14 score would indicate. Las Lomas dominated the first half, but the Trojans came back strong to take the game.

HOMECOMING CLASS FLOATS were not as impressive as in past years, but everyone had fun building them.

HOMECOMING 1973 — Las Lomas Field

The Varsity football team defeated Las Lomas 16-14 and helped make the evening a success. Nanci Bouterious was crowned queen and Greg Arz became the first "king" ever at Del Valle.

The Homecoming Dance was a great success, featuring an above average performance by Rock Island. The group projected an atmosphere of enthusiasm through out the crowd, creating a memorable experience.

Oh, the games people play, now, every night and every day now, never meanin' what they say, now. Never sayin' what they mean . . .

And they while away the hours, In their ivory towers, Till they're covered up with flowers in the back of a black limousine . . .

Oh, we make one another cry; Break a heart, then we say good-bye. Cross our hearts and we hope to die. That the other was to blame . . .

Neither one will ever give in. So, we gaze at an eight by ten; Thinkin' 'bout the things that might have been, it's a dirty rotten shame . . .

People walkin' up to you, Singin' Glory Hallelujah!

and they're tryin' to sock it to you. In the name of the Lord . . .

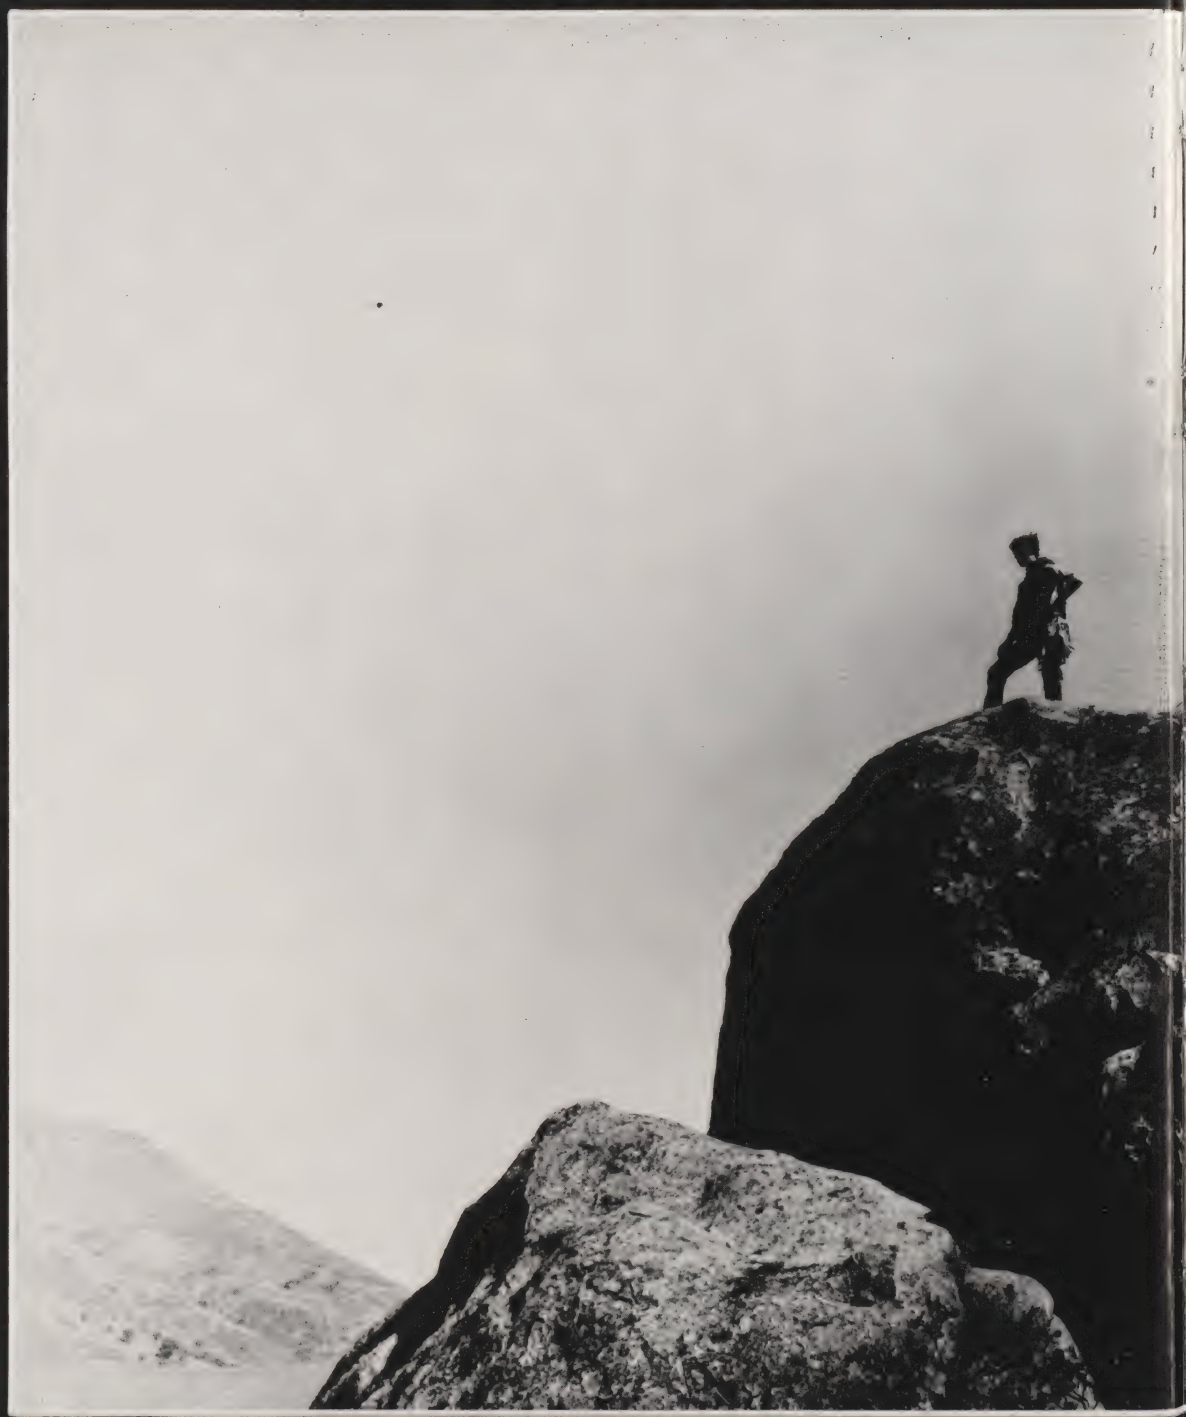
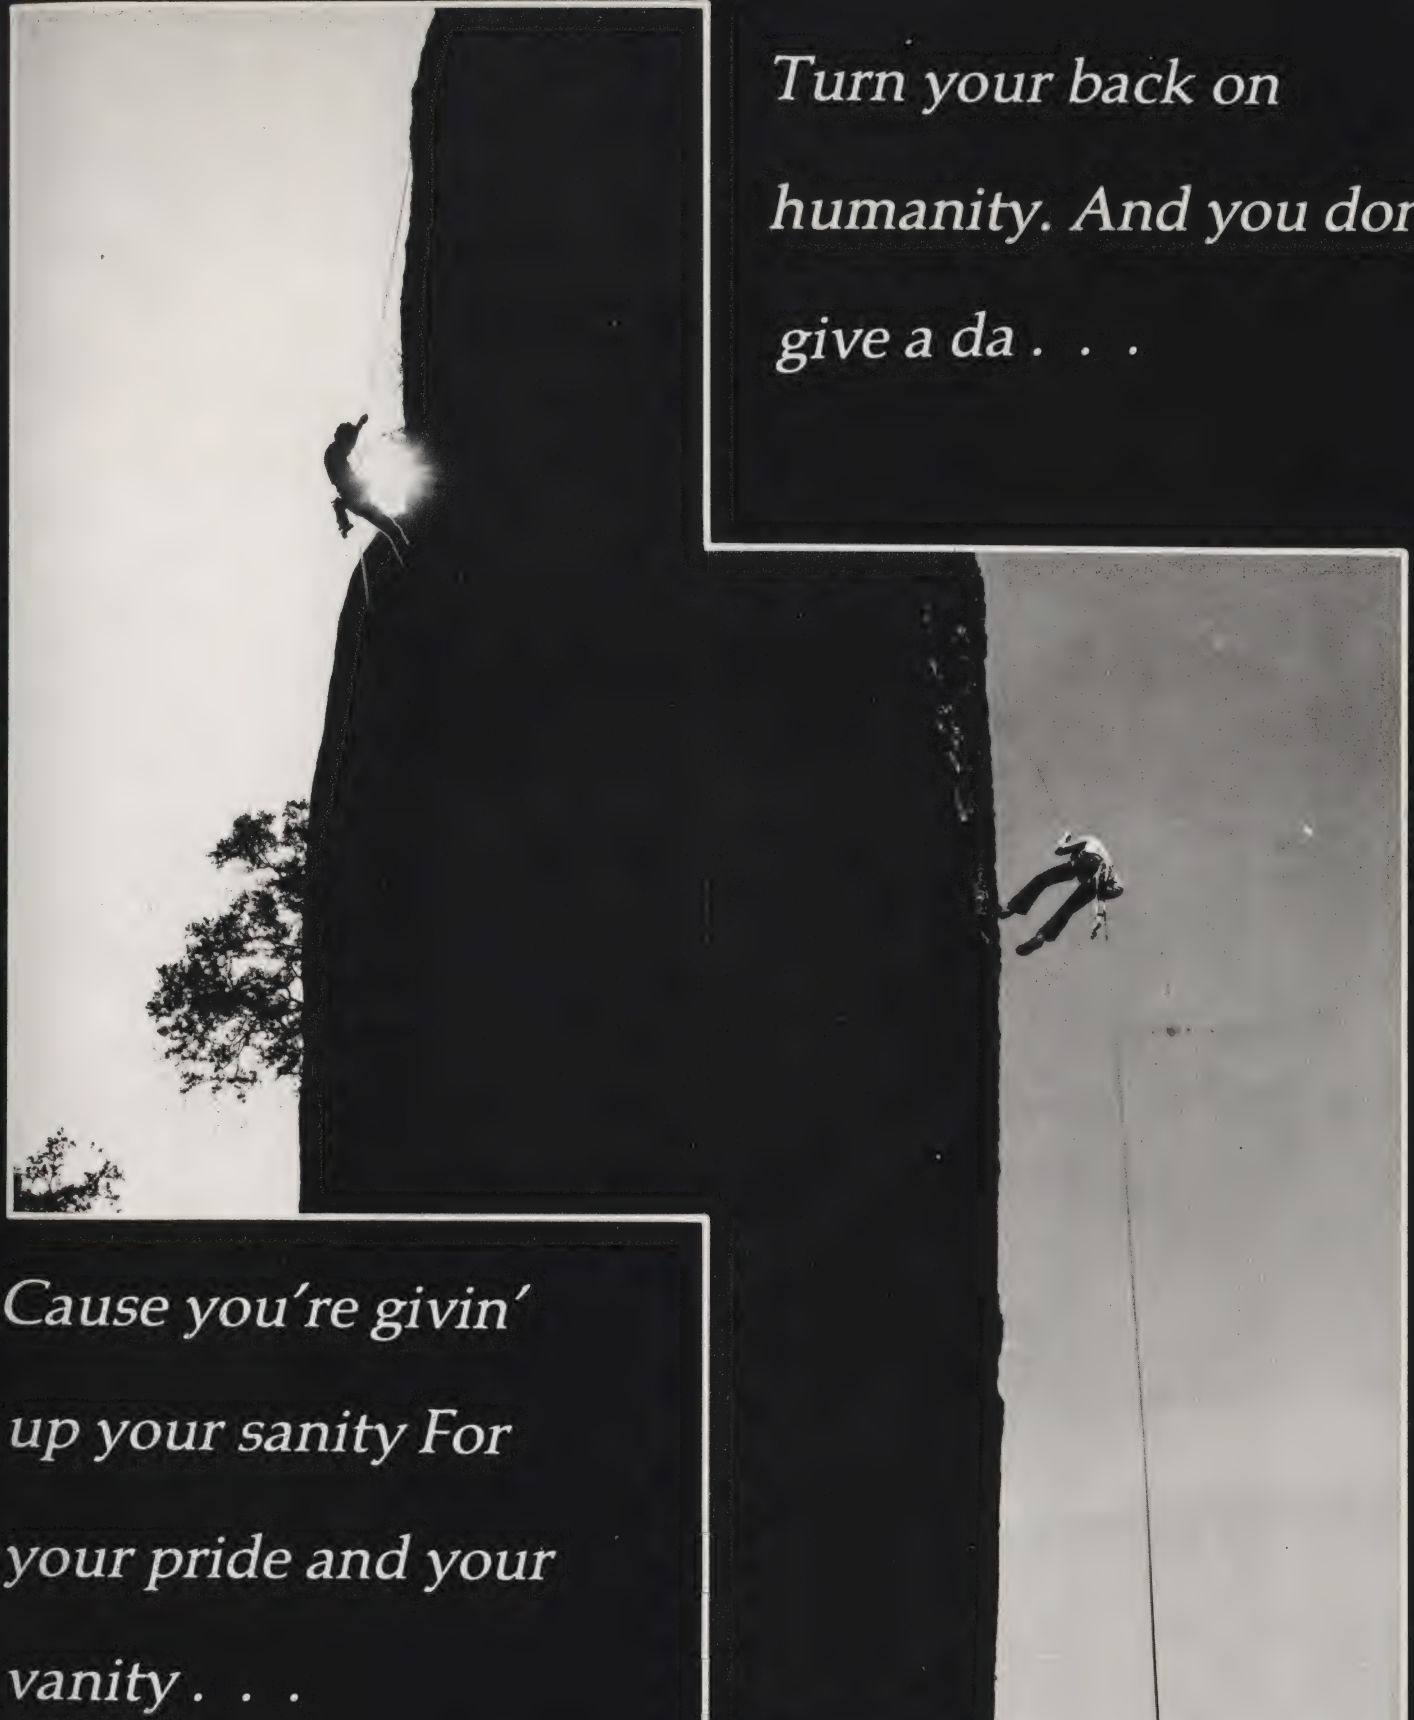
They're gonna teach you how to meditate;

Read your horoscope, cheat your fate.

And furthermore to hell with h

Look around, tell me what you see What's happenin' to you and me. God grant me the serenity, To remember who I am . . .





Turn your back on humanity. And you don't give a da . . .

Cause you're givin' up your sanity For your pride and your vanity . . .

La, da, da, da, da

Talkin' 'bout you and me.

And the games people play . . .

Students React to Board Decision

Del Valle's working students, and a few ringers according to attendance reports, turned out two hundred strong to protest the board's decision to start school one-half hour later. The demonstartion was called for 7:00 A.M. to block buses from entering campus. After alert administration hindered their efforts, the protestors regrouped and marched on the district office. There, frustration mounted as was recorded by our staff photographer. Later, investigation of students complaints found only twenty-two unavoidable conflicts for the entire district, proving once again that patience in a crisis is often the best action.

Tennis

The tennis team had not gone into competition at press time. Jeff Davy, Dick Denkers, and Kevin Smith were seeded 1-2-3 while up and coming racketeers included Ken Croley, Kevin Mepyans, and Greg Nuttle. Hopefully, the team will finish near the top of the FAL standings at the end of the season.

Styles on Campus

Styles at Del Valle shows a variety of tastes. Girls are apt to wear short skirts reflecting the "nice put together look" one day, followed by the "grubbie look" the following day which would include sweat pants and tennis shoes. Above we see examples of both for girls plus a boy sporting the "heavy look." Below is a display of "plastered in plaids." The "Grove look" coordinated from the Army-Navy Surplus Store is stylish as well as serviceable. BELOW RIGHT: the "casual-comfortable look."

A disappointing loss dampened spirits, but the team bounced back to finish the season without another defeat. FANTASTIC!

J.V. Football

This year's Junior Varsity team had a record of three wins and five losses. Their league standing was fourth place.

The team was coached by Bob Aston and Phil Huff. The team was plagued by injuries; this, in turn affected the spirit of the team.

Individually, the team had some outstanding players: Layne Christensen, Backfield man, and Scott Meader, a receiver. The rest of the team had a lot of talent that was never developed, however, next year the team will have stronger potential.

This year the Freshman squad posted a respectable season record of 4-2-1. They finished in fourth place after losing to third place Campolindo. After a sputtering start, the little red machine put it all together for an impressive three game winning streak to end the season. The team boasted a strong backfield and an excellent defense. This is confirmed by a stats record that shows it allowed only 47 points. The offense rolled out 123 points against its opponents.

The 1973 soccer season was a trying one for the Varsity squad. They lost their first 2 games against tough squads from Campolindo and Miramonte, and ended up in third place in the league standings with a record of 5-2. A bright spot with this years squad was that the majority of the team was made up of juniors. So next year the trojans expect to place very high in the league.

The 1973 season for the Frosh — Soph soccer team was one of the better ones in a few years. They posted a record of 2-4-1. This team was full of hustle and spirit, and should supply the varsity with quite a few young talented players.

The cross country Harriers had a fairly good season this year. Both Varsity and J.V. raked up a total of 7-1 in dual meets.

In dual competition the Varsity was tied with Campolindo and Miramonte for first place.

The Jr. Varsity seized first place in dual meets, also taking first place at the league meet at St. Mary's College making them J.V. League Champions.

Dan Patterson, Prima donna of the Varsity squad, ran in the North Coast Finals to be honored as one of the finest Cross Country runners in Northern California.

Despite the lack of a winning season, Coach Tom Ehrhorn looks forward to the coming years when the young squad will prove itself in winning ways.

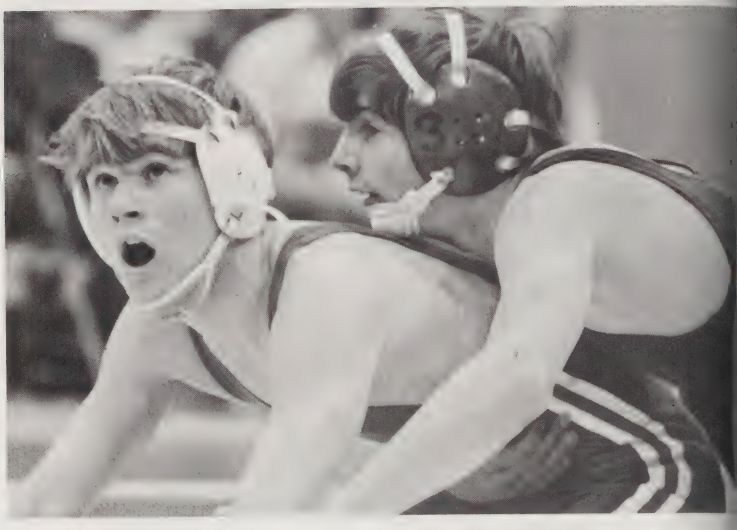
Wrestling



Del Valle's wrestlers provided us with one of the most exciting seasons in memory. Predicted to be down in the standings, the team actually held first place until its crushing loss to Pacifica 27-25. This resulted in a three way tie with Miramonte and Pacifica. Hope was still high when we hosted Miramonte for the final match of the season. Tension mounted as each team clawed itself to a 22-22 tie going into the last match. A more experienced Williams defeated novice Rusty Hufft in a quick pin, and the loss dropped Del Valle into third place.

Coach Bob Aston's expressions are a study of a match lost. In the sequence below his expressions reflect inner turmoil: concern, frustration, anticipation, and finally, bitter acknowledgement of defeat.

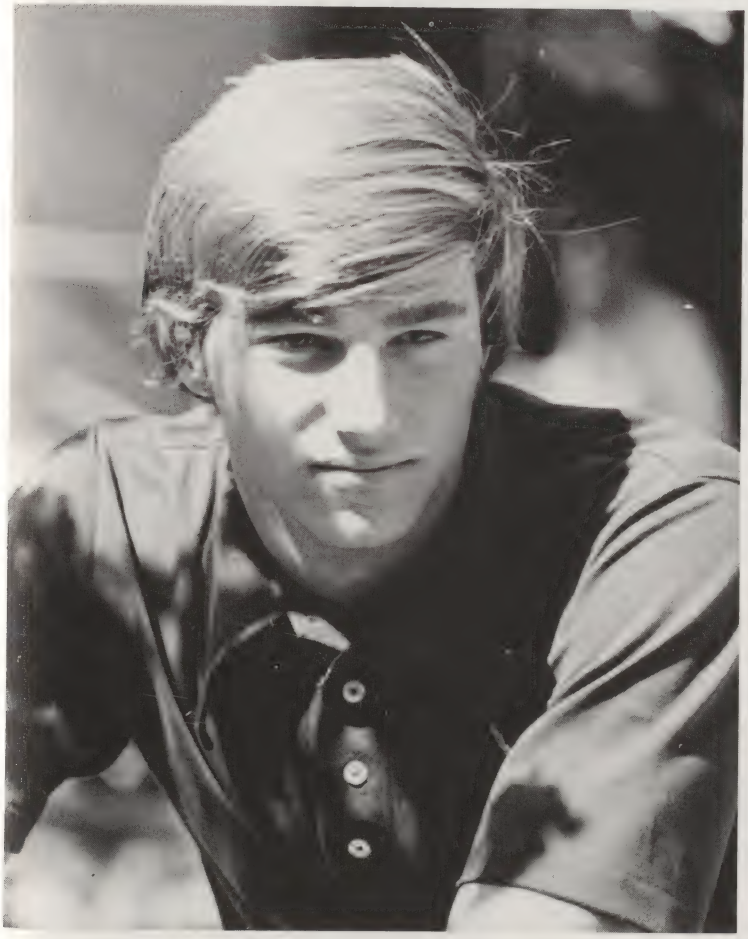
Senior Class Officers

The class of '74 will be remembered for holding more noon meetings than any other class in the history of Del Valle. Other records that were threatened were: "most informed," "most dunned" (Sr. ski trip) and most presidents — "two". President Jeff Winters (right) hung in there until he finished his senior requirements at mid-year. The second semester was left to Gregory Arz (below center). Political upheaval followed as Peter Cooper (opposite lower right) treasurer, Caren Press (opposite upper right) secretary, and Candy Herman (right) social secretary, plotted to usurp the vacancy left by Arz.

Much excitement was had by graduating class members at the various activities in spite of their failure to win the big events. (Homecoming float, spirit stick) But, the class did succeed in working as a group and there was good communication. These things help make the graduating class of '74 one that will not be forgotten.



Leadership

The Leadership class was composed of Student Body and Class officers. They met daily with the Director of Student Activities to coordinate the various student oriented events on campus. Under the guidance of President Terry Ballock, well organized student activities ran smoothly. Greg Arz led the Senior Class in a fashion far more efficient than his recent predecessors. All officers worked hard to make this an active and productive year for all students.

Leadership Class Members: President, Terry Ballock; Vice-President, Rob Gage; Secretary, Julie Hyde; Treasurer, Dick Rushton; Social Secretary, Dee Dee Michelson; Publicity Chairman, Carol Casey; C.I.C. Varsity Basketball Team

The Varsity Basketball team produced one of its better seasons in spite of the league standings. Hindered by a lack of height, the team proved a good match for most of its opponents by compensating with good overall hustle, brilliant passing, and sparkling defense. The team was led in performance by Mark Kennett, Adam Larnach, and Jerry Bushnell, and Mitch Pleis. Center Ron Tveitmoe lacked experience in the beginning, but showed much improvement and shooting ability in the latter part of the season. The big guns, Kennett, Larnach, and Bushnell were able to shoot over their taller foes. They were assisted by the timely help of Pleis, Tveitmoe, and Hilderbrand.

J.V. Basketball

The 1973-74 basketball season closed last Monday, marking the completion of a very successful campaign for the Junior Varsity club. Winning two of their last three games, the Trojans finished as the third best team in the league behind co-champion Campolindo and Acalanes.

The end of the year statistics found the team with an 11 and 5 win-loss record. Calvin Cedarleaf scored 228 points for a fine 14 point average while Scott Meader averaged 9 per game. March pulled down an average of 10 rebounds and Meader grabbed 8 per game.

But the true story is centered around a fine team effort and a great never-say-die-attitude that time and time again proved to be the deciding factor.

Frosh Basketball

The Freshman team was truly a loose but well-disciplined machine. Under the guidance of Coach Tom Costello, the "Trobabes" racked up a record of fifteen wins and one loss to wrap up the F.A.L. Championship. Outstanding for the season were Jim Farnsworth, Todd Rich, Matt Pleis and Dan Steffex. Their record would have been greater had they had more playing time; the entire bench played in every game. The power of the offense and defense can best be explained by the stats. The offense scored an average of 59 points while allowing only 31 points per game.

The J.V. Baseball Team under the capable leadership of coach Bob Jensen, promises to be one of Del Valles most outstanding J.V. team in the schools history. Bolstered with a good crop of last year's frosh players, they hope to go all the way to the champions.

Predicted to be outstanding players for '74 are Bod Hilson in hitting and fielding, Chris Gaudio in catching, Dan Ridge, and Jim Weeks pitching and all around utility player — Joe Caruso.

Frosh Baseball

Candidates for the Frosh Baseball team posed during an early practice. At press time coach Dario Pedrotti announced that at the time a team roster was not available.

The Del Valle golf team was coached by Mr. Herman. The team was lead by Paul Hubbell, Mark Self, and Rich Gaudio. Del Valle has long been a dominating force in the F.A.L. and, as demonstrated by this year's team, will probably continue to do so for many years to come.

Girls Athletics

The Girls Track team anticipates a good season, especially in the running events. The 440 relay team, headed up by Philippa Renton, Lori Walkup, Val Thompson, Susie Cain and alternate Stacey Cley are expected to do well.

The team is coached by Mrs. Anita Farnholtz and assisted by coaches Gordon Finn and Bill Geick when they practice with the boys track team. Their schedule includes meets with Campolindo, Las Lomas, Miramonte, and Berkeley High.

MEMBERS ARE: Val Thompson, Jenny Shaw, Kathy Peery, Marcia Smelter, Judy Lax, Susie Cain, Jennifer Case, Charlene Loret, Philippa Renton, Stacy Cley and Lory Walkup.

Varsity Basketball

The Girl's basketball team ended its season with a 7 win-2 loss record. The team was led by top scorers, Kathy Tronvig and Mary Anderson, and top rebounders Carolyn Oxsen and Cathy Lanci. Also strong in rebounding was Jane Humphrey and Melissa Camber. Much improved performances were shown by ball handlers Dee Dee Michelsen, Janine Keith and freshmen Julie Johns and Amy Olson. The team hosted the Del Valle Tournament Mar. 14, 15, 16. Participants in the tournament were, Acalanes, Oakland High, Clayton Valley, Miramonte, Berkeley, Granada, and Alhambra.

J.V. Basketball

The J.V.'s finished the season with an overall record of 5 wins-3 losses. Top scorers of the season were Anna Belaustequi, Lori Seaborg, and Andrea Wallace. The J.V.'s were led by ball handlers Cathy Ingmire and Nanci Bouterious. The team coach was Mrs. Hayes.

Girls Gymnastics

RIGHT: Molly O'Meara does a hand stand leading to a roll out.

The girls gymnastics team made its first appearance this fall and finished with what most felt a successful year. With a loss to Campolindo (111-94) and a win against Los Lomas (115-109), the young team still managed to win several berths in a qualifying meet at Acalanes. At the state meet they went on to take a respectable seventh place in a field of twenty-eight entrees.

G.A.A. Swimming

During the fall, the G.A.A. participated in Swimming meets. Like the boys Water Polo Team, the girls made the best of the unheated pool. Among the 25 girls that participated in this program, there were quite a number of fine swimmers. The team swam well in meets, and even set a few records.

Pom-Pon Girls

Our Pom-Pon girls also had a winning year. They returned from Cheerleader-Songleader Camp with a second place trophy. Two girls were chosen to return and instruct at camp; they were Karen Dove and Beth Detweiler. The P.P.G.'s also won first place in the state competition at Ygnacio Valley H.S. Drum Major Drum Major Becky Hoots, a Junior, was the bands field general for half-time shows and parades. Under her leadership morale was high and there was a spirit of good cooperation. She, with the attached units competed with the band in Band Reviews at Santa Anna, Long Beach, and Santa Cruz. At Santa Anna the Band placed second in its division.

Letter Girls

The Letter Girls help brighten the front of the Band and attract attention by spelling out the school's name. This year's crop was especially attractive. You might say they were spell-binders!

Majorettes

The majorettes, headed up by Senior Colleen Gold, made a good showing at half-time football band shows and competition parades.

All of these girls, that represent Del Valle, are girls who take time out from their schedules to prove they care.

Flag Girls

The Flag Girls added flash and color, especially when passing in review at competition parades.

FRONT TO BACK: Phyllis Dixon, Rosalie Martinelli, Charlotte Hamilton, and Fifi Maio.

Varsity Cheerleaders

The Varsity Cheerleaders aquitted themselves well this year; though they had to fight the factor of student apathy, which has been growing these past few years. They returned from Cheerlead-Songleader Camp with a nomination for the Coca-Cola Award (Their highest honor) and toting another addition of the much coveted Spirit Stick. They also won a third place in the state competition at Ygnacio Valley H.S.

Though Head Cheerleader, Karen Van Voorhis, tried many ploys (such as "leg contests" and "Kiss Contests") to promote spirit, Del Valle, true to its traditions, held back. Once in a while the cheerleaders would get a good yell from the crowd or their advisor, Miss A.

"if the doors of perception were cleansed, everything would appear to man as it is — infinite" . . . (from the sun's birth day, John Pearson)

Business Dept.

Our business classes offer a variety of experiences which help students in a practical way. Here we learn skills that can be used on the job. The faculty demands much of us and we, in turn, expect much from ourselves.

Foreign Language

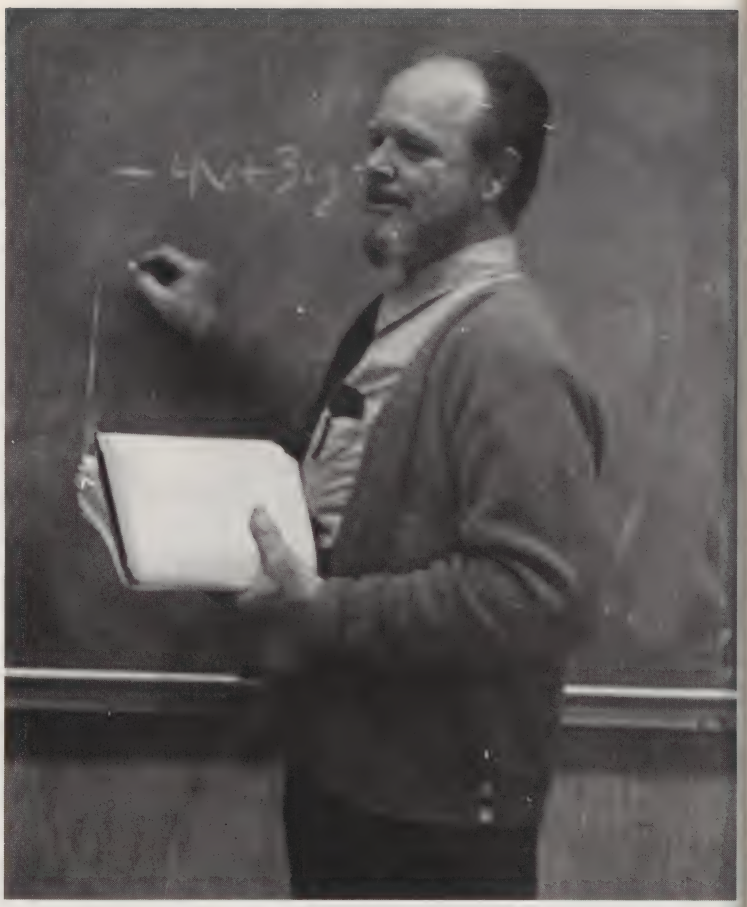
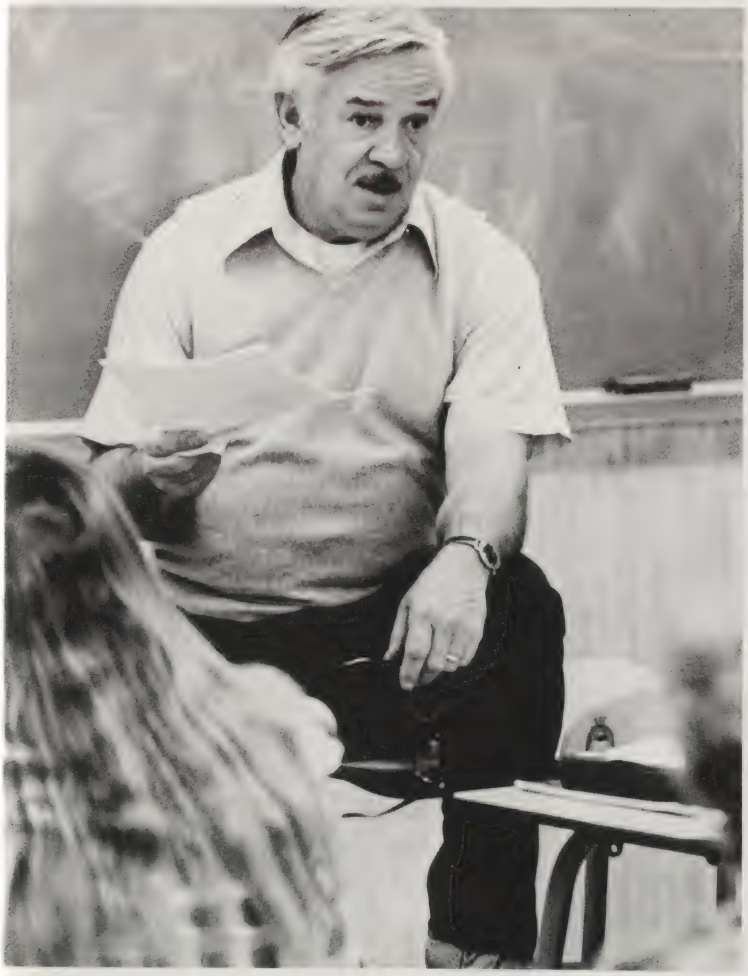
We marveled at how our t[illegible]hers could work the same problem so many ways. We understood it until we got home . . . There many of us unraveled the mysteries of numbers on the phone. Others of us sat in wonder and finally lost interest . . . How could some of those guys in the front row get so far ahead of the class? No wonder they invented computers!





Art and Crafts

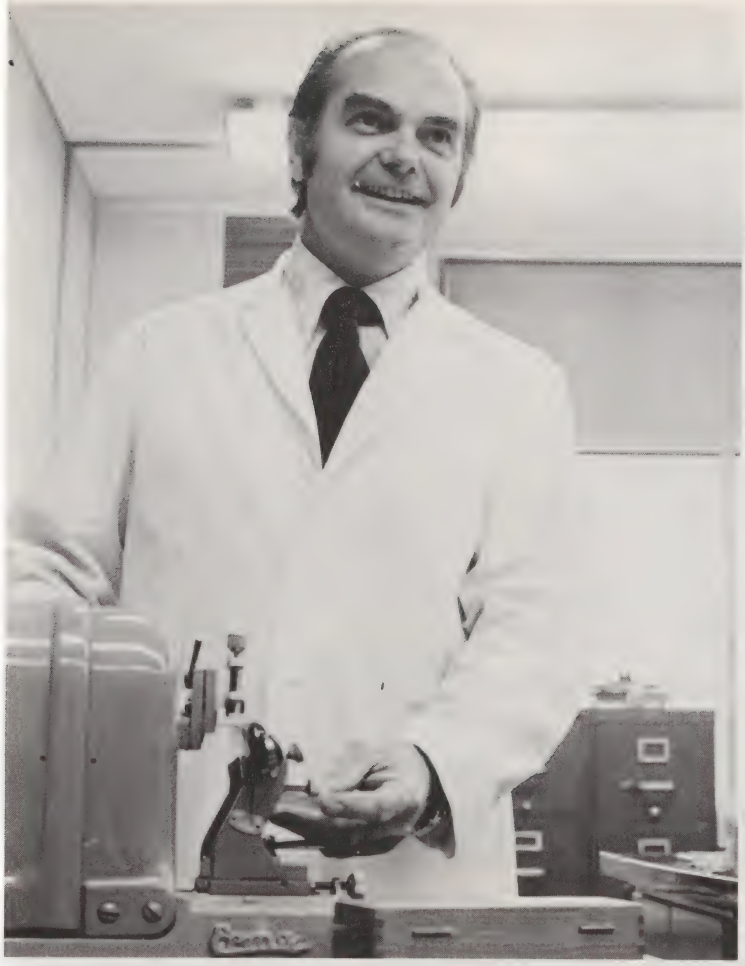
Science Department



How could there be things there we could not see? With instruments, numbers, and an undying curiosity, we saw real things with our own eyes. Those things we could not see with our eyes, we saw in our mind — they were really there.

Social Studies

English Dept.

Del Valle's English department, with reduced sections, was still able to offer a rich variety of elective subjects. More stress was placed on writing and oral skills with reading interpretation receiving equal attention.

Pep Rallies

Rallies offered us a chance to let down our hair. We always felt better after we yelled a little and we had fun, too. The cheerleaders tried to surprise us with a new skit. The one's that came off were really great!

Brad Coggins puts his trained centipede, "Cleo", lower left, opposite, through its paces. Carolyn Oxsen obediently leads fellow seniors in a complicated marching routine. Above left, opposite: Obviously delighted, Lori Banks, Lori Bradbury, and fascinated students look on. Center: Amused and waiting next stunt — Kim Battles and Lorraine Jones. Sequence in upper right corner depicts junior Rod O'Meara being kissed by supposed campus queen. Much to his surprise it turns out to be off-campus queen — his pretty Mom.

Legs — hairy and otherwise, are the theme of this rally. Far left: Karen Van Voorhis conducts poll, "Which leg belongs to a girl?" Top center: Cathy Peery interogates Janet Rhoades. Much of this book, especially the color, was made possible by the support of the merchants in our Ad Section. We hope you will give them a chance to serve you.

If you don't mind dirty knees and a little squinting, it's easy to find beauty on our campus

John Crane

If you didn't bring anything with you when you came . . . you probably won't take much with you when you leave . . .
